 No. 2: pp 99-174 published September 23, 1991
 No. 3: pp 175-270 published November 18, 1991
 No. 4: pp 271-320 published December 13, 1991

Allik J, Tuulmets T, Vos PG: Size invariance in visual number discrimination 290

Bäckman L → Nilsson L-G
 Ben-Zur H → Koriat A
 Birrell P → Christensen H
 Bouffard V → Foley MA
 Bradley DC → Sánchez-Casas RM
 Brennan T, Bruce V: Context effects in the processing of familiar faces 296
 Bruce V → Brennan T
 Bryant S → Cohen RL
 Burani C, Cafiero R: The role of sub-syllabic structure in lexical access to printed words 42

Cafiero R → Burani C
 Christensen H, Birrell P: Explicit and implicit memory in dementia and normal ageing 149
 Cohen AJ: Tonality and perception: Musical scales primed by excerpts from The Well-Tempered Clavier of J. S. Bach 305
 Cohen RL, Bryant S: The role of duration in memory and metamemory of enacted instructions (SPTs) 183
 Cohen RL → Engelkamp J
 Colombo L: The role of lexical stress in word recognition and pronunciation 71
 Content A: The effect of spelling-to-sound regularity on naming in French 3

Denis M, Engelkamp J, Mohr G: Memory of imagined actions: Imagining oneself or another person 246
 Di Lollo V → McIntyre MC
 DiSanto-Rose M → Foley MA
 Druch A → Koriat A

Ehrlich M-F: The processing of cohesion devices in text comprehension 169
 Engelkamp J, Cohen RL: Current issues in memory of action events 175
 Engelkamp J, Mohr G, Zimmer HD: Pair-relational encoding of performed nouns and verbs 232
 Engelkamp J → Denis M

Feldman LB: The contribution of morphology to word recognition 33
 Foley MA, Bouffard V, Raag T, DiSanto-Rose M: The effects of enactive encoding, type of movement, and imagined perspective on memory of dance 251

García-Albea JE → Sánchez-Casas RM
 Gelder de B, Vroomen J: Phonological deficits: Beneath the surface of reading-acquisition problems 88

Helstrup T: Integration versus nointegration of noun pairs and verb pairs under enactment and nonenactment conditions 240
 Heuer H: Editorial 101
 Hill L → Ratner HH
 Hotopf WHN: Theories of attentional fields should be tested directly: A reply to Pressey 320

Jacobs AM → Nazir TA
 Jordan TR → Smith PT

Katz L, Rexer K, Lukatela G: The processing of inflected words 25
 Knopf M: Having shaved a kiwi fruit: Memory of unfamiliar subject-performed actions 203
 Koriat A, Ben-Zur H, Druch A: The contextualization of input and output events in memory 260
 Kostić A: Informational approach to the processing of inflected morphology: Standard data reconsidered 62
 Kruse P → Stadler M

Lukatela G: Guest editorial 1
 Lukatela G → Katz L

Mackie KD → Polich J
 McIntyre MC, Di Lollo V: Categorical processing of visual stimuli in relation to geometrical, graphemic, or lexical context 142
 Meij H van der: General problems of questioning research 315
 Mimura K → Sugita Y
 Mitarai Y → Yamada J
 Mohr G → Denis M
 Mohr G → Engelkamp J

Nazir TA, Jacobs AM: The effects of target discriminability and retinal eccentricity on saccade latencies: An analysis in terms of variable-criterion theory 281
 Nilsson L-G, Bäckman L: Encoding dimensions of subject-performed tasks 212
 Nilsson L-G → Nyberg L
 Noel RW → Paap KR
 Norris MP, West RL: Age differences in the recall of actions and cognitive activities: The effects of presentation rate and object cues 188

Nyberg L, Nilsson L-G, Bäckman L: A component analysis of action events 219

Ohashi K → Polich J

Paap KR, Noel RW: Dual-route models of print to sound: Still a good horse race 13
 Pfaff S → Stadler M
 Polich J, Mackie KD, Spencer KM, Ohashi K: The effects of hemispheric differences on feature perturbations 274
 Pressey AW: Spatial distribution of attention in a visual alignment task: A reply to Hotopf and Brown 319

Raag T → Foley MA
 Ratner HH, Hill L: The development of children's action memory: When do actions speak louder than words? 195
 Rexer K → Katz L
 Richter PH → Stadler M

Sánchez-Casas RM, García-Albea JE, Bradley DC: On access representation in visual word recognition: The temporal separation technique 53
 Scheerer E: Editorial 99
 Sharma D → Smith PT
 Shebilske WL → Sirikasm P
 Sirikasm P, Shebilske WL: The perception and metaperception of architectural designs communicated by video-computer imaging 113
 Smith PT, Jordan TR, Sharma D: A connectionist model of visual-word recognition that accounts for interactions between mask size and word length 80
 Spencer KM → Polich J
 Stadler M, Richter PH, Pfaff S, Kruse P: Attractors and perceptual field dynamics of homogeneous stimulus areas 102
 Stoffer TH: Attentional focussing and spatial stimulus-response compatibility 127
 Sugita Y, Mimura K: Cortical modulation of visual contrast 271

Tuulmets T → Allik J

Vos PG → Allik J
 Vroomen J → de Gelder B

West RL → Norris MP
 Wippich W: Haptic information processing in direct and indirect memory tests 162

Yamada J, Mitarai Y, Yoshida T: Kanji words are easier to identify than katakana words 136
 Yoshida T → Yamada J

Zimmer HD: Memory after motoric encoding in a generation-recognition model 226
 Zimmer HD → Engelkamp J
